

Sinclair Broadcasting is not acting in the public interest with this partisan attempt to present a biased "documentary" as news. I believe that this is a clear violation of campaign finance law and is a free commercial for the Bush campaign. Sinclair's license should not be renewed.